COLLECT

Trinity Sunday

Almighty and everlasting God, you have given us your servants grace, by the confession of a true faith to acknowledge the glory of the eternal Trinity, and in the power of the divine Majesty to worship the Unity. Keep us steadfast in this faith, that we may evermore be defended from all adversities; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen

Mission and Purpose: As we see the gracious salvation plan in the missional heart of God, may we be a missional church of Spirit-filled committed disciples of Jesus Christ, always ready to take the gospel to the nations.

Serving Holy Communion in St John's Chapel

In the face of COVID-19, all the more we need God's grace.

As Anglicans, we believe the Eucharist is one such channel of God's grace to strengthen our faith as we remember Christ's one perfect sacrifice and are divinely nourished by His presence with us through the ordinary Sacramental Elements of the Wine and Bread.

Yet, we will not be reckless in keeping the order of the Anglican Church in celebrating the Eucharist or Holy Communion. Our Diocesan Bishop has issued a guideline on how Holy Communion can be celebrated after learning from the best practices of the Anglican Church in the Province of South East Asia even as we safeguard the communicant's health in these special times.

In St John's Chapel, with effect from July 2022, we will celebrate Holy Communion on the second and fourth Sunday of the month. We will serve the Elements of the Wine and Bread by intinction. This is how you should receive the Elements of the Wine and Bread.

1. Celebrant and Lay Reader sanitise their hands
2. Celebrant with Lay Reader serving Holy Communion
 - a. Celebrant takes a wafer and intinct into the chalice
 - b. Celebrant hands the wafer to the communicant who takes it from the dry side as the words are said "The body and blood of the Lord Jesus Christ keep you unto eternal life".
 - c. The communicant takes the Elements, gives thanks and partakes the Elements and moves on

May you encounter the eternal God and be nourished at His table of grace.

Intercession

Vacation Bible School (VBS)

1. Thank God for the 20 children who have signed up for VBS. Pray that the Lord will prepare the hearts of each child to receive His Word and the children, many of whom are second generation Christians, will know Jesus personally for themselves.
2. Thank God for church members who have availed themselves. Pray for unity, strength, love and joy as we serve together. Pray that everything that has been planned will run smoothly.
3. Pray for safety, protection as well as good weather as the group heads out for an outing in the afternoon of 17 June.

Legal Awareness Talk on "Are We Treated Differently In Law As We Age?"

St Margaret's Ex Students Association is holding a Legal Awareness Talk "ARE WE TREATED DIFFERENTLY IN LAW AS WE AGE?" and would like to invite you to join them to find out more about aging and the law.

The Talk will be led by SMESA Member Ruby Lee, Deputy Director of the SMU Yong Pung How Law School, with her team from SMU. Have we wondered if there is any law against ageism? As most of us have elderly relatives and friends, we thought it would be useful to learn what our laws have to say on the subject.

Details relating to the Talk are as follows:

Date: Saturday, 2 July 2022

Time: 2.30 pm to 4.00 pm

Venue: SMSS IT Learning Lab, 111 Farrer Road, Singapore 259240.

There will be a time for fellowship with light refreshments after the Talk.
