COLLECT

First Sunday after Trinity

Almighty and everlasting God, by whose Spirit the whole body of the Church is governed and sanctified: hear our prayer which we offer for all your faithful people; that each in his vocation and ministry may serve you in holiness and truth to the glory of your name; through our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

Mission and Purpose: As we see the gracious salvation plan in the missional heart of God, may we be a missional church of Spirit-filled committed disciples of Jesus Christ, always ready to take the gospel to the nations.

Serving Holy Communion in St John's Chapel

In the face of COVID-19, all the more we need God's grace.

As Anglicans, we believe the Eucharist is one such channel of God's grace to strengthen our faith as we remember Christ's one perfect sacrifice and are divinely nourished by His presence with us through the ordinary Sacramental Elements of the Wine and Bread.

Yet, we will not be reckless in keeping the order of the Anglican Church in celebrating the Eucharist or Holy Communion. Our Diocesan Bishop has issued a guideline on how Holy Communion can be celebrated after learning from the best practices of the Anglican Church in the Province of South East Asia even as we safeguard the communicant's health in these special times.

In St John's Chapel, with effect from July 2022, we will celebrate Holy Communion on the second and fourth Sunday of the month. We will serve the Elements of the Wine and Bread by intinction. This is how you should receive the Elements of the Wine and Bread.

1. Celebrant and Lay Reader sanitise their hands
2. Celebrant with Lay Reader serving Holy Communion
 - a. Celebrant takes a wafer and intinct into the chalice
 - b. Celebrant hands the wafer to the communicant who takes it from the dry side as the words are said "The body and blood of the Lord Jesus Christ keep you unto eternal life".
 - c. The communicant takes the Elements, gives thanks and partakes the Elements and moves on

May you encounter the eternal God and be nourished at His table of grace.

Intercession

Young Adults

1. Pray for the young adults to know and "remember their Creator in the days of their youth" (Ecclesiastes 12:1), and to discern how God is working in their lives, and in the world today.
2. Pray for the young adults to walk by the Spirit day by day (Galatians 5:16), and exercise wisdom in matters big and small — particularly in their work and career, family and relationships, and how they handle money and possessions.
3. Pray for the young adults to (re)discover the meaning of church, and be blessed as they participate in the life and fellowship of the SJCp community.

Legal Awareness Talk on "Are We Treated Differently In Law As We Age?"

St Margaret's Ex Students Association is holding a Legal Awareness Talk "ARE WE TREATED DIFFERENTLY IN LAW AS WE AGE?" and would like to invite you to join them to find out more about aging and the law.

The Talk will be led by SMESA Member Ruby Lee, Deputy Director of the SMU Yong Pung How Law School, with her team from SMU. Have we wondered if there is any law against ageism? As most of us have elderly relatives and friends, we thought it would be useful to learn what our laws have to say on the subject.

Details relating to the Talk are as follows:

Date / Time : Saturday, 2 July 2022 / 2.30 pm to 4.00 pm

Venue: SMSS IT Learning Lab, 111 Farrer Road, Singapore 259240.
