Sermon Title : Can you really do it?

Text : Matthew 26:31-35

COLLECT

Second Sunday after Trinity

Lord God our Father, through our Saviour Jesus Christ you have assured mankind of eternal life and in baptism have made us one with him. Deliver us from the death of sin and raise us to new life in your love, in the fellowship of the Holy Spirit, by the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ. Amen.

Mission and Purpose: As we see the gracious salvation plan in the missional heart of God, may we be a missional church of Spirit-filled committed disciples of Jesus Christ, always ready to take the gospel to the nations.

Serving Holy Communion in St John's Chapel

In the face of COVID-19, all the more we need God's grace.

As Anglicans, we believe the Eucharist is one such channel of God's grace to strengthen our faith as we remember Christ's one perfect sacrifice and are divinely nourished by His presence with us through the ordinary Sacramental Elements of the Wine and Bread.

Yet, we will not be reckless in keeping the order of the Anglican Church in celebrating the Eucharist or Holy Communion. Our Diocesan Bishop has issued a guideline on how Holy Communion can be celebrated after learning from the best practices of the Anglican Church in the Province of South East Asia even as we safeguard the communicant's health in these special times.

In St John's Chapel, with effect from July 2022, we will celebrate Holy Communion on the second and fourth Sunday of the month. We will serve the Elements of the Wine and Bread by intinction. This is how you should receive the Elements of the Wine and Bread.

1. Celebrant and Lay Reader sanitise their hands
2. Celebrant with Lay Reader serving Holy Communion
 - a. Celebrant takes a wafer and instinct into the chalice
 - b. Celebrant hands the wafer to the communicant who takes it from the dry side as the words are said "The body and blood of the Lord Jesus Christ keep you unto eternal life".
 - c. The communicant takes the Elements, gives thanks and partakes the Elements and moves on

May you encounter the eternal God and be nourished at His table of grace.

Intercession

Men's Fellowship

- 1) Pray for the Men to walk in His ways and worship God in an acceptable manner in their lives.
- 2) Pray for the Men to reach out to one another to spur one another on in their journey and in their various positions of leadership (Family, ministry, work, leisure, etc)
- 3) May God be glorified in the lives we humbly live, as we walk this journey in the different seasons of our life.
